David A. Mathews Joins Fiducia Group's Experienced Team of Consultants

PITTSBURGH, PA – Fiducia Group, LLC and Confero Fiduciary Partners, an alliance of retirement consulting firms, announces the addition of David A. Mathews to Fiducia Group.

Dave is a Senior Investment Advisor and is responsible for providing investment research, client service and sales support for the firm.

Dave has more than 36 years of experience as a financial services professional. He has been responsible for sales and servicing of investment management services to tax-exempt institutions including corporate ERISA plans, public retirement funds, endowments, foundations and Taft-Hartley plans for two nationally recognized institutional investment management firms.

"We are very confident in Dave's skills and expertise and looking forward to utilizing Dave to better serve our clients", said Charley Kennedy, Partner at Fiducia Group. He added, "Dave understands the retirement consulting business extremely well, but more importantly he knows how to help us and our clients develop strategies and tactics that further the achievement of their fiduciary goals."

Dave most recently served as Principal and Managing Director at Snow Capital Management for 14 years. Prior to his employment at Snow, he was the Vice President and Director of Marketing at Advanced Investment Management. Before joining AIM, Dave served as Regional Director at the New York Stock Exchange and earlier in his career was an officer at Mellon Financial Services and worked at Federated Investors.

Dave earned his B.A. in Business Administration from Westminster College and an MBA from the University of Pittsburgh. He currently lives in Moon Township with his wife of 28 years, Kathy. They have four children together.
